

PALESTINE – ART AS RESISTANCE

Join us
for a three webinar series of videos, speakers and conversation.

Wednesdays 10 - 11:30 am
Nov 9, 16 and 23.

Learn more about present realities in Palestine and how Palestinians find strength, persistence and hope through engaging with the arts – painting, acting, dancing and embroidery.

Leaders: Adele Boy (ECORC Palestinian Network)
Barbara Lloyd (Shining Waters Palestine Network).

THE WEBINARS

Nov. 9: Yayha Natour is a storyteller and works with youth and children employing art, sport and music to address trauma and reduce violence. Yayha will speak on the Art of Storytelling and Graffiti.

Nov. 16: Alaa' Abu Saa' is an activist and will be speaking on his work with the Dar Qandil for Arts and Culture Centre in Tulkarrem. The centre aims to encourage young people to get involved in art, music, and culture.

Nov. 23 : View the film "Stitching Palestine" Twelve Palestinian women sit before us and talk of their memories, of their lives and of their identity. Their narratives are connected by the enduring thread of the ancient art of embroidery. Directors Muna Khalistan and Carol Mansour will be available after the film.

TO REGISTER: Email barblloyd@rogers.com